

Question 1

Many school districts provide school-linked services for students and families. These services can be provided at either

- A) another agency
- B) near the school site
- C) the school building
- D) all of the above

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385387>

Question 2

The process of conducting professional practice in ways that are legally and ethically proper is known as:

- A) professional practice.
- B) professional licensure.
- C) practice makes perfect.
- D) professional ethics.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385227>

Question 3

The goal of submersion with primary language support is

- A) usually different for individual students
- B) transition to English as quickly as possible
- C) English language fluency
- D) academic proficiency in native language
- E) both C and D

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385314>

Question 4

According to your text, a novice teacher is likely to immediately witness and experience the effects of:

- A) the importance of discipline in the classroom.
- B) federal laws on schools.
- C) the impact of racial desegregation.
- D) funding on the quality of education.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385446>

Question 5

Schools for students beyond eighth grade that serve a large and diverse student body, while providing a wide range of services and curricula, are known as:

- A) comprehensive high schools.
- B) alternative middle schools.
- C) alternative high schools.
- D) comprehensive middle schools.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385281>

Question 6

One of the more important factors that will help you in the goal of maintaining a learning-oriented classroom is:

- A) the student handbook.
- B) developing a leadership and management plan.
- C) being strong and assertive.
- D) the induction program.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385615>

Question 7

Administrative, legislative, and legal affairs all affect what happens in schools and classrooms. What factor in building an effective learning environment does this involve?

- A) the political
- B) the cultural
- C) the sociological
- D) the organizational

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385198>

Question 8

The proliferation of pre-k programs in the U.S., in part, reflects:

- A) growth in the opportunities for teachers of young children.
- B) the need to increase children's willingness to learn.
- C) research showing the benefits of early intervention.
- D) the need for smaller class sizes.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385271>

Question 9

Those who object to tenure generally maintain that:

- A) it protects incompetent teachers.
- B) it is incendiary.
- C) it violates the principle of nondiscrimination.
- D) it promotes inequality.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385460>

Question 10

In pursuing a teaching career, your job search begins with:

- A) hiring a career counselor.
- B) luck.
- C) certification.
- D) knowing yourself.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385601>

Question 11

The function of accountability laws is to ensure that:

- A) teachers are held accountable for their behavior.
- B) students who graduate can read, write, and perform basic math skills.
- C) students are held accountable for their behavior.
- D) both A and B

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385442>

Question 12

A school system which administers mandatory achievement tests to students at several crucial points during their school years is acting in accordance with:

- A) accountability laws.
- B) anti-discrimination laws.
- C) the Constitution.
- D) proven results based on the latest research.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385443>

Question 13

The type of funding formula that provides equal funding based on a district's average daily attendance is known as:

- A) block grants.
- B) flat grants.
- C) distributed grants.
- D) formula grants.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385418>

Question 14

Essentially, a curriculum is defined as:

- A) the subjects taught in the process of schooling.
- B) all the experiences students have while engaged in the process of schooling.
- C) what results from the planning of instruction in school.
- D) all the academic experiences students have from the moment they enter the classroom.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385538>

Question 15

Programs that promote cooperation, interaction, and exchange between two or more generations are known as:

- A) advance programs.
- B) two and intergenerational programs.
- C) community programs.
- D) family-centered programs.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385372>

Question 16

Compensation, prevention, intervention, and transition are four approaches designed to help students. Which group of students do these approaches target?

- A) at-risk students
- B) minority underachieving students
- C) special needs students
- D) dropout students

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385355>

Question 17

All of the following are reasons why people are interested in schools EXCEPT:

- A) parents with children believe it is the business of schools to determine what their children are taught.
- B) education in America is viewed as a citizen-controlled and influenced operation.
- C) people who pay taxes believe they deserve a say in how schools operate and educate students.
- D) they have all been to school and think they know all about schools.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385396>

Question 18

The International Society for Technology in Education (ISTE) has created six categories of _____ for technical proficiency.

- A) standards
- B) funding
- C) criticism
- D) organizations

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385564>

Question 19

The group that is responsible for setting criteria for teacher certification, entry into the profession, and dismissal from the profession is known as the:

- A) state department of education.
- B) state standards board.
- C) accreditation and discipline board.
- D) teacher certification board.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385406>

Question 20

The process of basing teaching, learning, and assessment on national, state, and local educational standards is known as:

- A) standards-based education.
- B) virtual educational practice.
- C) personal experience.
- D) family values and belief systems approach.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=385509>