

Question 1

If you believe individuals should always have the right to choose what happens to their own bodies (e.g., abortion or euthanasia should be legal choices), your decision making is based upon which category of ethical theory?

- A) Deontology
- B) Capitalism
- C) Epistemology
- D) Teleology

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255349>

Question 2

The only organization devoted solely to public health education and health promotion is the

- A) American School Health Association.
- B) American Public Health Association.
- C) Society for Public Health Education, Inc.
- D) American Association for Health Education.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255755>

Question 3

The focus of the journal Health Education Research is to

- A) be better than all the other journals.
- B) only publish articles where every experiment has been a success.
- C) publish articles concerning health promotion program planning, implementation, and evaluation.
- D) publish everything there is to know about health promotion program planning and implementation.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255831>

Question 4

Which of the following is not a question to ask when critically reading a research article?

- A) Were the conclusions reasonable in light of the research design?
- B) Were the findings extrapolated to a population that is similar to the population studied?
- C) Were the goals/aims of the study defined in a clear manner?
- D) Were the goals/aims of the study consistent with other studies?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255786>

Question 5

Which planning model is a socio-ecological planning approach?

- A) CDCynergy (CDC)
- B) PRECEDE-PROCEED (Green & Kreuter)
- C) Multilevel Approach to Community Health (MATCH)
- D) Mobilizing for Action through Planning and Partnerships (NACCHO)

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255154>

Question 6

It is assumed that the earliest humans initially learned to distinguish between things that were healthful and those that were harmful by

- A) divine intervention.
- B) instinct.
- C) inherited knowledge.
- D) trial and error.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=254757>

Question 7

The process by which an agency or government (usually a state) grants permission to individuals to practice a given profession by certifying that those individuals have attained specific standards of competence is known as

- A) credentialing.
- B) accreditation.
- C) certification.
- D) licensure.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255436>

Question 8

Because of the increasing availability of documents on the Internet, the U.S. government has

- A) shifted away from issuing paper copies of materials.
- B) increased the number of IT personnel hired.
- C) quadrupled Internet marketing.
- D) created a government search engine.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255804>

Question 9

Which of the following is not an overarching goal of Healthy People 2020?

- A) Living longer lives
- B) Creating healthy environments
- C) Eliminating disparities
- D) Conducting critical research

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=254916>

Question 10

During what era were criminals dissected alive to improve medical knowledge?

- A) Egyptian
- B) Greek
- C) Roman
- D) Middle Ages

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=254809>

Question 11

The _____ attempts to explain how a person comes to the decision to take action and how the decision is translated into action.

- A) Precaution Adoption Process Model
- B) Multilevel Approach to Community
- C) Health Action Process Approach
- D) Transtheoretical Model of Change

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255308>

Question 12

Which of the following actions was not included in Seffrin's address on the direction health education must take to reach its potential?

- A) Join a professional health organization.
- B) Advocate for the profession and those who do not have a voice.
- C) Affect legislation that promotes health.
- D) Collaborate with other health professionals.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255902>

Question 13

The Greek physician credited as being the first epidemiologist and the father of modern medicine was

- A) Hippocrates.
- B) Asclepius.
- C) Panacea.
- D) Plato.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=254790>

Question 14

A public health oriented master's degree that would focus more on research would most likely be the

- A) M.P.H.
- B) M.S.
- C) M.Ed.
- D) M.S.P.H.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255575>

Question 15

The basic concept associated with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 is

- A) privacy.
- B) fairness.
- C) autonomy.
- D) nonmaleficence.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255428>

Question 16

Which of the following is not a skill that health education specialists need in the future?

- A) Expertise in technology
- B) Skills in analyzing past and future trends
- C) Research techniques
- D) Skills in filing medical claims

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255874>

Question 17

Which of the following is not one of the seven major responsibilities of a health education specialist as identified in the competency-based framework?

- A) Assessing needs
- B) Planning programs
- C) Implementing programs
- D) Developing computer programs

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255534>

Question 18

During the Renaissance period, much surgery and dentistry was performed by

- A) physicians and dentists.
- B) nurse midwives.
- C) surgeons trained only by apprenticeship.
- D) barbers.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=254832>

Question 19

Which of the following is not a suggested way in which advances in technology will revolutionize the delivery of health education?

- A) Extension of traditional health education delivery systems to address literacy and language barriers
- B) Allowing various forms of communication utilizing pictures, sounds, movement, and virtual reality
- C) Personalizing communication and instruction through tailored messages and interventions
- D) Significantly reducing communicable diseases in third world countries

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=255861>

Question 20

The first people to put as much emphasis on prevention of disease as on the treatment of disease conditions were the

- A) Egyptians.
- B) Hebrews.
- C) Greeks.
- D) Romans.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=254783>