

Question 1

The ability to reflect on language is called metalinguistic awareness.

T or F? HELP!

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=541983>

Question 2

Rectangles, circles, crosses, and other basic shapes children draw at about age _____.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=541176>

Question 3

Kiley had been feeling better about herself lately. Self-esteem tends to _____ in late adolescence.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=542820>

Question 4

The fertilization of two separate ova by two separate sperm cells results in _____.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540318>

Question 5

Judging by the photograph of human chromosomes near the start of the Chapter 2, chromosome 1 is the smallest.

Is this true or false?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540084>

Question 6

Matt avoided doing a lot of things because he didn't want his parents to catch him. His moral viewpoint is characteristic of Kohlberg's _____ level of morality.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=542834>

Question 7

What types of problems are children with insecure attachments more likely to show in early and middle childhood than children with secure attachments?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=541010>

Question 8

Siraj stood at a small table building a block structure. On the other side of the table, Nelson stood pretend-galloping a toy horse with a cowboy on it along the tabletop. The two were engaged in _____.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540993>

Question 9

For Freud, the _____ was the source of biological drives, including hunger, sex, and aggression.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=539928>

Question 10

Some cases of intellectual disability are accounted for by

- a. high socioeconomic status.
- b. prenatal exposure to alcohol.
- c. dyslexia.
- d. overweight.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=541715>

Question 11

Crying is something that parents

- a. ignore.
- b. encourage.
- c. try to reduce.
- d. generally can't hear.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540390>

Question 12

Adolescents are more likely to be interested in curricular material that is

- traditional (i.e., the same exact material studied by their parents and grandparents).
- challenging and relevant.
- abstract and mathematical.
- not directly related to their lives.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=542488>

Question 13

The process in which parent and child share control of the child's responsibilities and activities is

- the growth mindset.
- gatekeeping.
- co-regulation.
- path analysis.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=542099>

Question 14

In studies designed to establish causal influences of parenting on child behavior (Cowan & Cowan, 2002; Cowan et al., 2005), parents (not children) received intervention. Children showed benefits from

- improvements in the marital relationship.
- parental adoption of the authoritarian parenting style.
- parents being less structured in their relationships with their children.
- authoritative parenting, but the benefits were short-lived.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=541526>

Question 15

Cira had heard of health benefits to the mother of breastfeeding. This surprised her. But in addition to being good for Cira's baby Elonza, breastfeeding helped mothers to have

- slower shrinking of the uterus.
- reduced blood loss after childbirth.
- a greater likelihood of postpartum depression.
- more rapid weight gain.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540407>

Question 16

During the final two months of the fetal period all of the following occur except

- the fetus continues to move actively around the uterus.
- immunities pass from the mother's bloodstream to the fetus.
- the fetus gains fat necessary for temperature regulation.
- the fetus typically turns upside down with its head pointed toward the bottom of the uterus.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540192>

Question 17

The ability to override a dominant response and/or activate a subdominant response is part of

- inhibitory control.
- attention/persistence.
- anger.
- activity level.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540866>

Question 18

Each of the following is a reason parents tend to become more authoritative (or move to an authoritative style of parenting) in middle childhood, except

- parents observe children taking on more responsibilities.
- parents are more emotionally mature at this stage of their child's development.
- parents observe teachers, coaches and others behave authoritatively toward children.
- schools expect children to take on more responsibility and communicate that to parents.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=542109>

Question 19

What are the benefits of prepared childbirth?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=540382>

Question 20

Alonzo marched with confidence over to the soccer ball and gave it a perfect kick, which sent the ball halfway across the playground. When a skill such as kicking a ball in the most effective way emerges suddenly, this is because

- a. the child suddenly understood how to do it.
- b. the child received reinforcement for kicking the ball.
- c. the correct gene was finally switched on.
- d. the key elements become coordinated.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=541056>