

Question 1

Drug inserts and advertisements for PDE5 inhibitor drugs warn men to go to the emergency room _____.

- A) if they have an erection lasting longer than four hours
- B) before they switch from one type of PDE5 inhibitor drug to another
- C) if they develop urinary incontinence
- D) if they develop a low level of potassium

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=595840>

Question 2

The physician's name (and/or the name of the medical group), office address, and phone number are preprinted on both prescription forms in the office and on the physician's order sheets in the hospital.

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=595980>

Question 3

An overdose of a narcotic drug can be reversed by giving intravenously a narcotic _____ drug intravenously.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=597471>

Question 4

A neoplasm is a new growth of cells that may be _____ or malignant.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=597215>

Question 5

Which of the following statements is FALSE?

- A) Hyperthyroidism can be treated with Synthroid.
- B) "Stacking" is using two or more anabolic steroids drugs at the same time.
- C) The drug name levothyroxine shows that its molecular structure is rotated to the left (levo-).
- D) Increased growth hormone in adults causes acromegaly.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596531>

Question 6

Who pays the pharmacist when he/she performs medication therapy management?

- A) Food and Drug Administration
- B) Drug Enforcement Agency
- C) Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act
- D) pharmacoinformatics

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=595932>

Question 7

Which of the following is NOT an ending common to generic corticosteroid drugs?

- A) -asone
- B) -olone
- C) -onide
- D) -oid

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596742>

Question 8

Robert Crawford has been a drug addict for six months. Now, he is increasing the amount of the drug he takes but is still not getting the "high" he craves. This is because he is now experiencing _____.

- A) euphoria
- B) tolerance
- C) dependence
- D) all of the above

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596657>

Question 9

Oral drugs used to treat acne rosacea include the antibiotic drug tetracycline (Sumycin).

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596786>

Question 10

The preceptor is reviewing the content of a new graduate's documentation of client care. What areas should the preceptor easily identify in this notation? Select all that apply.

- A) Reactions to non-routine medications
- B) Assessment made at the beginning of the shift
- C) Teaching and the client's response
- D) Questions asked by the family
- E) Changes in the client's condition

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=597564>

Question 11

_____ drugs are also known as cardiac glycoside drugs because they have a molecular structure that consists of chains of glucose sugar known as glycosides.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596443>

Question 12

Topical antiyeast drugs are used to treat a Candida albicans yeast infection in the mouth, which is also known as oral candidiasis, _____, or monilia.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596982>

Question 13

Why do some women prefer using a 28-day pill pack OCP?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596492>

Question 14

There are several different ways that a physician can specify that he/wants a trade name drug rather than a generic equivalent to be dispensed. Give examples of two ways in which this can be done.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596278>

Question 15

All drugs approved by the FDA are entirely safe and without potential side effects and risks.

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=595769>

Question 16

All generic HCG-CoA reductase inhibitor drugs have a common ending of -statin.

Is this statement true (A) or false (B)?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596433>

Question 17

Topical corticosteroid drugs are used to treat inflammation in _____.

- A) the ears
- B) the nose, ears, and mouth
- C) the mouth
- D) the nose

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596944>

Question 18

All of the following are the trade names of nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs, EXCEPT _____.

- A) Aleve and Clinoril
- B) Skelexin and Flexeril
- C) Voltaren and Motrin
- D) Daypro and Advil

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=596155>

Question 19

Chloride channel laxative drugs, such as lubiprostone (Amitiza), stimulate chloride channels in the mucosa of the intestinal wall. This causes _____.

- A) lipase in the diet to be excreted in the stool rather than absorbed
- B) fluid to flow into the intestines to soften the stool
- C) the release of hydrochloric acid in the stomach
- D) a "bandage" to form over a gastric ulcer

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=595981>

Question 20

The therapeutic effect of a drug given intravenously takes a while to be seen in the body as it has to travel through the systemic circulation.

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=595408>