

Question 1

What are the processes for acquiring values?

1. Prescribed by the dominant religion.
2. Formal education and study.
3. Discussions with clergy.
4. Choosing, prizing, and acting.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574602>

Question 2

Nurses working on a post-op care unit are practicing which level of care?

1. Primary
2. Secondary
3. Tertiary
4. Preventive

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=575057>

Question 3

Which statement best reflects the essence of Madeleine Leininger's work?

1. Caring and curing cannot exist independently of each other.
2. Persons of all cultures tend to expect similar interventions from nursing care providers.
3. Both differences and commonalities exist in the ways cultures practice caring.
4. Western cultures practice caring at a superior level to that practiced in non-Western cultures.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574681>

Question 4

The nurse is preparing a brief in-service for new graduate nurses on actions to shape the future. In which order should the nurse introduce these futures concepts?

1. Possible
2. Probable
3. Plausible
4. Preferred

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=575209>

Question 5

The newly licensed nurse committed a clinical error and was sanctioned by the unit manager. What is the purpose of a sanction?

1. Enforcement of norms
2. Documentation of wrongdoing
3. Development of leader-follower leveling
4. Externalization of ethics

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574555>

Question 6

How can planning help the nurse-manager? (Select all that apply.)

1. Identifying future opportunities
2. Quickly fixing current problems
3. Developing strategies
4. Avoiding future problems
5. Designing courses of action

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574765>

Question 7

What statement about specialty certification in nursing is true?

1. Specialty certification guarantees increase in salary for the nurse.
2. Healthcare agencies rarely recognize certifications by nursing specialty groups.
3. The nurse who works in hospital practice must hold at least one specialty certification.
4. The nurse must demonstrate extensive experience and continuing education in the specialty area.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574525>

Question 8

How does the World Health Organization define health?

1. Physical fitness and positive self-concept
2. A state of complete physical, mental, and social well-being
3. Being well
4. The absence of disease

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574973>

Question 9

The American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN) identified certain competencies essential for graduates of baccalaureate nursing programs to provide culturally competent care. Which statements reflect these competencies? (Select all that apply.)

1. Participate in continuous cultural competence development
2. Use relevant data sources and best evidence to provide culturally competent care
3. Reinforce health disparities among populations
4. Promote achievement of safe and quality outcomes of care for diverse populations
5. Defer use of best practice evidence to the case management teams

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=575099>

Question 10

The nurse would like to start a self-help group for persons who would like to lose weight. Which organization would it be helpful for this nurse to contact?

1. American Nurses Association
2. National League for Nursing
3. National Mental Health Consumers' Self-Help Clearinghouse
4. National Coalition of Self-Help

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574878>

Question 11

What is the common denominator for nursing leaders across history?

1. They desired to obtain power in their job positions.
2. They were all women of wealth and influence.
3. They cared deeply about the society in which they lived.
4. They were focused on caring for people in hospitals.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574596>

Question 12

The nurse educator is developing materials to educate hospital employees about sexual harassment. Which information should be included in these materials?

1. Victims of sexual harassment are always female.
2. Any sexual conduct, even if it is desired by both parties, is considered sexual harassment.
3. It includes unwanted verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature.
4. Sexual harassment occurs only in the workplace.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574648>

Question 13

What is the issue most central to the controversy over level of entry into professional nursing?

1. Professional title
2. Reimbursement for services
3. Definition of a profession
4. Cost of tuition

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574553>

Question 14

What knowledge or skill must the nurse possess to make the best use of the teleologic theory of ethics in decision-making?

1. Ability to predict the outcome of decisions.

2. What the rules are concerning the decision to be made.
3. Ability to see how good character traits impact the decision.
4. What the central caring goal of the decision is.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574611>

Question 15

In the Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society (HIMSS) study done in 2014, what was the largest barrier to success as a nurse informaticist?

1. Education
2. Time
3. Financial resources
4. Support systems

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574953>

Question 16

A client was admitted after being injured in a fight outside a bar. The nurse asks, "Why were you in a bar?" This is an example of which barrier to therapeutic communication?

1. Challenging
2. Rejecting
3. Stereotyping
4. Probing

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574904>

Question 17

The nurse has been caring for a ventilator-dependent patient for several days. The family has made the decision to withdraw ventilatory support. How should the nurse interpret this decision?

1. As active euthanasia
2. As illegal euthanasia
3. As passive euthanasia
4. As alleviation euthanasia

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574614>

Question 18

The nurse has decided to go back to school. Which group is most likely to provide physical and financial support to this nurse?

1. Mentor
2. Family and friends
3. Career ladder organization
4. State nursing organization

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574532>

Question 19

What is one challenge when working as an advanced practice nurse?

1. Lack of formal recognition and acceptance by the public
2. The need for licensure and certification
3. Lack of prescriptive authority and reimbursement by third-party payers
4. Lack of education and experience

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=575173>

Question 20

What component of the communication process is the source encoder?

1. The context of the message
2. The message sender
3. The receiver of the message
4. The channel

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=574891>