

Question 1

Adolescents who are on their own after school and on vacation days, often because their parents are at work, are called ____ teens.

- A) neglected
- B) trouble-prone
- C) latchkey
- D) abandoned

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292504>

Question 2

Where conformity to traditional gender roles is concerned, adolescent ____ who are ____ are looked on least favorably by other adolescents.

- A) girls; gender-typical
- B) girls; gender-atypical
- C) boys; gender-typical
- D) boys; gender-atypical

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292776>

Question 3

Girls who see themselves as overweight, even when they are not, and are especially dissatisfied with their hips, thighs, and waists, suffer from a distorted

- A) body image.
- B) pubertal growth
- C) sexual self.
- D) media obsession.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292387>

Question 4

Kevin's father is an attorney and his mother is a municipal judge. At 17, Kevin pierces his tongue, gets a bright orange mohawk haircut, and shows up shirtless at his parents' reception for a prominent city official. Erikson would probably describe Kevin's behavior as indicating

- A) a psychological disorder.
- B) a psychosocial moratorium.
- C) a negative identity.
- D) role confusion.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292805>

Question 5

When Hailey joined a school service organization, it gave a new focus to her desire to help others. Her enthusiasm helped make the organization more lively and attractive to other students, which made her enjoy it even more. The relationship between her and the organization is an example of

- A) a dynamic person-context interaction.
- B) an adaptive developmental regulation.
- C) a positive feedback loop.
- D) All of the above.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292981>

Question 6

While deeply influenced by Freud, Erikson differed from him in stressing the importance of

- A) biological needs.
- B) psychosocial issues.
- C) the Oedipus complex.
- D) changes in sexual impulses during childhood.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292298>

Question 7

A person whom others consider to be outstanding in moral commitment and character is referred to as a moral

- A) paragon.
- B) apogee.
- C) exemplar.
- D) archetype.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292837>

Question 8

Chandara was born in India but now lives in New Jersey. She wears traditional Indian dress to school, does not socialize with non-Indian students, celebrates Hindu holidays, and has told her parents she wants them to arrange her marriage in traditional style. John Berry would say that she represents an example of

- A) marginalization.
- B) assimilation.
- C) separation.
- D) integration.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292647>

Question 9

Adolescents say that an attractive feature of oral sex is that

- A) "You can do it and still be a virgin."
- B) "You won't get pregnant from it."
- C) "You're less likely to catch a disease."
- D) All of the above.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292886>

Question 10

In comprehensive high schools, students followed a _____ program.

- A) college preparatory
- B) vocational
- C) general education
- D) Any of the above, depending on what their abilities were thought to be.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292570>

Question 11

What is the role of biology in the theories of adolescence put forward by G. Stanley Hall and Sigmund Freud. How would you evaluate their use of biological concepts?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292340>

Question 12

According to surveys in which teens report their increasingly intimate sexual activities,

- A) boys and girls follow the same sequence of activities at about the same age.
- B) girls report the same sequence of activities as boys, but a year later.
- C) girls, who reach puberty earlier than boys, become involved in sexual activity earlier too.
- D) the sequence of sexual activities is shorter for boys, who skip over some of the steps that girls report.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292884>

Question 13

Wallace is self confident, positive, and independent, and does well in school. Research indicates that he is more likely to come from a family with _____ parents.

- A) authoritative
- B) authoritarian
- C) indulgent
- D) indifferent

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292472>

Question 14

Art is wondering how to get closer to a girl he likes. He is most likely to go for advice to

- A) his mother.
- B) his father.
- C) his best friend.
- D) an Internet chatroom.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292536>

Question 15

The first day of gymnastics class, the coach noticed Vanessa's slim build, strong arms, and sense of balance, and began giving her the special attention that helped her become a champion. This exemplifies what Sandra Scarr has termed a(n) _____ genotype-environment correlation.

- A) passive
- B) evocative
- C) active
- D) behavioral

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292494>

Question 16

Jerry tells his friends, "If I train the next month or so, I've got a better than even chance of finishing the marathon." This sort of statement

- A) is an expectancy.
- B) shows extrinsic motivation.
- C) shows intrinsic motivation.
- D) is evidence of the motive to succeed.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292709>

Question 17

About _____ adolescents in the United States was born in another country or is the child of recent immigrants.

- A) one in twenty
- B) one in ten
- C) one in five
- D) one in three

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292643>

Question 18

A leading fast-food chain decides to offer schoolchildren a free meal if they get all A's on their report card. Edward Deci's work suggests that the effect on student interest in schoolwork will be

- A) positive.
- B) negligible.
- C) negative.
- D) positive for those who win the meal but negative for the rest.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292712>

Question 19

When a theory leads to a prediction about what will happen in a particular set of circumstances, that prediction is known as a(n)

- A) experimental factor.
- B) theorem.
- C) hypothesis.
- D) assumption.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292313>

Question 20

Moving from elementary to junior high school is difficult because

- A) most students in the new school already know their reputation from before.
- B) it coincides with other stressful transitions such as puberty.
- C) the looser classroom atmosphere makes it hard to know how to act.
- D) the greater interest teachers take in their students feels like prying.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292580>