

Question 1

Almost _____ of full-time college students work at least a few hours a week.

- A) two-thirds
- B) three-quarters
- C) one-fifth
- D) one-third

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=294052>

Question 2

Nonnormative influences are

- A) biological and environmental influences that are similar for individuals in a particular age group, regardless of when or where they were raised.
- B) social and cultural factors present at a particular time for a particular individual.
- C) specific, atypical events that occur in a particular person's life at a time when such events do not happen to most adolescents.
- D) biological and environmental influences associated with a particular historical moment.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293068>

Question 3

Early adolescence approximately covers the age range of

- A) 10 to 13 years.
- B) 8 to 12 years.
- C) 18 to 22 years.
- D) 14 to 17 years.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=292988>

Question 4

Groups with whom one compares oneself are _____ groups.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293698>

Question 5

Adolescent conformity pressure typically occurs through _____, in which there is an implicit appreciation that youth in the same crowd should stick together, behave in similar ways, and generally conform to the implicit norms of the crowd.

- A) normative regulation
- B) ingroup bias
- C) cohesiveness.
- D) informational social influence

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293652>

Question 6

Prosocial behavior is behavior that

- A) reflects adolescents' misperceptions of other people who they are observing and are attempting to learn from.
- B) promotes the moral development of children.
- C) reflects adolescents' preoccupation with maintaining social relationships.
- D) benefits others.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293369>

Question 7

Automatization refers to the

- A) degree to which an activity requires attention.
- B) placement of information into memory.
- C) processes whereby information is located in memory, brought into awareness, and used.
- D) development of complex schemes.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293230>

Question 8

Emotions are important because they

- A) help adolescents prepare for the future, shaping upcoming behavior.
- B) help adolescents interact more effectively with other people.
- C) prepare adolescents for action.

D) all of the above.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293473>

Question 9

Adolescents with _____ parents are likely to be withdrawn and show low levels of sociability.

- A) permissive
- B) uninvolved
- C) authoritarian
- D) authoritative

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293556>

Question 10

As compared to children, adolescents' thoughts about themselves are likely to

- A) be more concrete and less abstract.
- B) be less influenced by what they believe that other people think about them.
- C) take both their own and others' views into account.
- D) be more physical and less psychological.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293416>

Question 11

Erikson viewed the strong sexual desires of adolescents as

- A) a barrier to adolescents' development of identity.
- B) an indicator that adolescents are developing an identity.
- C) an indicator that they are ready for intimate relationships.
- D) pseudo intimacy, lacking deep intimacy.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293731>

Question 12

One explanation for the growth in cognitive abilities that takes place during adolescence is that adolescents grow many new neurons.

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293185>

Question 13

A sexual _____ is a fairly regular progression of behaviors that ultimately leads to oral-genital sex.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293901>

Question 14

Whereas males are more likely to have an agentic orientation in regards to prosocial behavior, females are likely to have a _____ orientation that centers on interests in relationships and community.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293405>

Question 15

Sociocultural-graded influences are

- A) biological and environmental influences that are similar for individuals in a particular age group, regardless of when or where they were raised.
- B) specific, atypical events that occur in a particular person's life at a time when such events do not happen to most adolescents.
- C) biological and environmental influences associated with a particular historical moment.
- D) social and cultural factors present at a particular time for a particular individual.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293067>

Question 16

In one recent study, it was found that areas of the brain associated with _____ were activated when participants were viewing pictures of their loved ones.

- A) formal operational thought
- B) impressionistic thought
- C) reward and motivation
- D) memory and intimacy

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293779>

Question 17

The term gender identity refers to

- A) a specific type of sexual disorder.
- B) the gradual internalization of norms regarding sexual behavior.
- C) sexual orientation.
- D) the gender a person believes he or she is psychologically.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293837>

Question 18

Dendrites are

- A) long extensions at the end of neurons that carry messages away from neurons.
- B) clusters of fibers at the end of neurons that receive messages from neurons.
- C) small gaps between neurons.
- D) neurotransmitters.

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293135>

Question 19

Positive psychology is a new growing branch of psychology that focuses on well-being and happiness.

- A) True
- B) False

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=294405>

Question 20

What is the relationship between crowd membership and self-esteem?

Answer: <https://biology-forums.com/index.php?topic=293712>